Lekan,

GREAT QUESTION!

Different. Nibiru - to the best data we've been able to collect and analyze - is still about 1,200 years out in its 3,600 year orbit. We're working on updates ...

***What data are you collecting and from whom? If we do simple math, if this object is 1200 years away from us now, that means that 400bc it was here last. What happened to the earth at that time? You would think that there would be evidence of this from geological records. We see science drilling cylinders in the South Pole going back hundreds of thousands of years and NOTHING significant at 400bc that I am aware of and would like to know what I am missing here...? I mean, the flood pre-dates that!

###Correct on all points! 400BC the Nefilim were still on the earth as evidenced by the UFOs of Marduk's remaining contingent shooting down the walls of Tyre for Alexander III of Macedon 20/21 July 356 – 10/11 June 323 BC. There could well have been other remnant units bringing up the rear, locating and removing equipment, et cetera. When Alexander reached Babylon to greet Marduk, he found Marduk dead and laid out in a golden coffin. We don't have much information beyond that. ###The fact each return of Nibiru would NOT necessarily be in the EXACT orbital track – making a difference in the actual distance between Nibiru and Earth – should STILL have effected something on Earth, if not geological then certainly orbital which SHOULD show up in any real and definitive examination. Haven't seen anything published about that, and mostly glossed-over or unaccounted for even the archeological reports. ###The best information we have as to WHEN the last Great Crossing was is gleaned from Zechariah Sitchin's books, and he didn't attempt to date it exactly.

That doesn't mean we can't see it with modern telescopes, just that as yet, it takes some very powerful equipment the average astronomer doesn't have access to; the VLA and other radio units for instance. And THAT is what I suspect is behind the BLACK SPOT in NASA's sky images ... To reveal there IS another planet in our solar system would completely verify Zach Sitchin - and blow the whole hallelujah halfwit 'christian' and 'muslim' religions out of the water! They'd have to explain WHICH events were of The Most High and WHICH were of the Nefilim, and they can't do that since their 'doctrines' are all attributed to acts of The Most High alone.

ELENIN A WASH - Follow-up

***In the fifties they admitted KNOWING Nibiru existed. Additionally, lately they have as well. So, they have already blown the hell out of the hallelujah halfwit elements. I have recent CNN videos and FOX showing this and as recently as weeks going back six months.

###Yep. Been hearing about it for years: All poo-pooed from top to bottom! The whole line of poppycock, 'mankind would be the oldest and the most advanced,' 'the lord would have revealed all such information,' 'Jesus will protect us from those demons,' and the general denigrating of anyone who says otherwise.

###Just like the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, immediately upon announcement of the scripts, the Catholic Church blasted the media with the statement that "nothing contained in them could possibly make any changes in Christianity" in spite of the fact the language they were written in hadn't been determined entirely nor had the contents been translated, only dated to 100-250 years PRIOR to Immanuel's time! The same idiocy prevailed when the Levites and Jews lit the media with condemnation of Mel Gibson's "Passion" film – before anybody had actually seen it!

However, we KNOW the Nefilim are in preparation for a return-in-force (the logistics are a nightmare) for the Days of Visitation ... and the necessity of a real house-cleaning is the reason. Exactly WHEN they'll arrive, whether unit by unit or all at once, WHEN they'll strike, WHERE they'll start and WHAT targets will have priority, we don't know yet. Lots of unanswered questions ... The planet can't feed the people we've got, and abject ignorance (by design of the socialists) is beyond epidemic and incurable. The cost of educating those who COULD learn is virtually impossible due to the administration costs alone - and WHO is able to support the faculty and student body until they're up and running ??? A more economical solution is disposal! The Anusazi can't cure the problem and the Nefilim have no intention of investing any more than necessary ... bodies upon bodies stopping generatons they won't have to feed or educate ...

***When you're dealing with alien races where the lifespan is in the hundreds of thousands of years, I think they would have their logistics down to mere thought. To us, yes, it would be a bitch. But my biggest question is WHY? Why in the hell would an armada make such an effort to come back? If coming back is such a logistical nightmare, in the span of the universe, why?

###The Nefilim obviously aren't any more competent – or moral – than our own 'leadership' with very few exceptions. Read the 'myths' of the Greek Pantheon of Gods and see their own records, always fighting among themselves, breeding all other the landscape, et cetera; and FAILING to enforce all the tenants of Holy Law after forcing it on Israel via Moses. At the beginning, there was a zero tolerance of any violation regardless of how small; and most of it became a now-and-then under Joshua and remained so for centuries with a bit of an upsurge at the dedication of the First Temple.

###Logistically, those who remained in the vicinity are now both low on supplies and their equipment is in dire need of repair and replacement. Since the Days of Visitation are actually GENERATIONS of Visitation, with BILLIONS of Anusazi to sort through, thousands of square miles of land to be decontaminated of both pollutions and hybrids, and hell only knows how much sea water will need cleaning, the current logistics requirements are far greater than those of the initial mining expedition. ###How required number of Command Orbiters for various sectors and their respective compliments of sensors, detectors, and Djeds – and the supplies and equipment for a long-term assignment – has caught the Nefilim virtually unprepared. They not only need to literally replace, repair, and re-arm the original remaining contingent, there is a total re-grouping necessary. It's no longer a matter of mining the planet for all worthwhile minerals, there are Anusazi who MUST be accorded the training and facilities to achieve all The Most High promises those with a soul: and THAT is the economic crux of the matter. The Nefilim simply do not want to live up to their obligations of maintaining mankind to that – or any other point!

###Thus the support and manipulations to enhance and empower all forms of SOCIALISM that eventually will cause us, mankind/Anusazi to DESTROY OURSELVES and relieve the Nefilim of all further obligations.

###Make no mistake: The Nefilim are under Direct Orders to not even approach anyone with a Holy Mark/Seal, but that does NOT stop them from manipulating all other circumstance that deprive and limit us as much as possible.

The Georgia Guidestones at Elberton, Georgia, are both a warning and marching orders of things to come. The FACT is, the data displayed of 500,000,000 is, in reality, all the planet can support WITHOUT endangering the rest of life on it! That idiot elements are making every attempt to deface the information posted there does NOT change the facts, nor will it delay or alter the bottom line of that "planetary justice" as the Nefilim refer to it. Wildlife has a right to live too, and nothing is going to change that either.

***Who posted the information there? Who purchased the land and who was contracted to build it? After we validate that, answers will froth to the top. I personally have done much study on this and my research has concluded that this is One World Government conditioning. Whenever I see quotes stating this planet can only handle 500 million people, I question the authorship and reasons for the statement. This is how they sell eugenics. This is how they sell the religion of "mother earth" and it comes in many disguises, such as "global warming/climate change". I would be willing to bet that if EVERY entity on this planet acted in accordance with Holy Law, the resources could easily support the population now and then some. With that said, we have entities funded that are doing more damage to this planet using technologies of HAARP or instruments of the Military Complex that do far more damage to this planet than its population.

###Again, correct on all points – with the proviso that ALL lifeforms have an equal right to live and exist – and because man is such a polluter, numbers beyond the 500-Million mark begin to intrude and desecrate habitat and natural resources that both endanger and destroy other lifeforms. THIS is one of the so-called 'big secrets' of the Knights of Columbus and Masonic Lodges for ages, and their secretive manipulations against everybody else is geared to exterminate everybody except their own, intending 'their' progeny to BE that 500-Million to the exclusion of everybody else.

I wish I could endow Holy Seals in everybody ... as THAT is the only protective once the Nefilim start what we call the Great Extermination ... but The Most High keeps that one to Himself as He damned well should! Even so, the Akurians have delivered the access and the alternative, with very few successes along the way. I have no idea when those doors will close, and once they do NOBODY, Akurian or otherwise, will be able to even assist getting a Seal. Those WITH a Holy Seal will not even be approached by the slayers and those WITHOUT are subject to whatever the Nefilim decide including execution on sight. They aren't going to kill the entire population, just billions of them, and those who remain are in for a very iron-hand restoration to Holy Law and servitude as the Nefilim shall direct. Only those with Holy Seals will be immune from both.

ELENIN A WASH - Follow-up

***Wouldn't it be in their best interests to continue doing what they are now with radiation and manipulated viruses?

###It sure would ... were it not for the fact of the Akurians and the general disgust of governments and 'churches' splattered all over the internet by patriots! These perpetual whistle-blowers are the ACTUAL targets of all proponents of the "Presidential-Internet ON/OFF Switch" starting with Obastard and Hillary Clinton. Currently, communists and Kak-Jews, which amount to the same thing, have a virtually stranglehold on all so-called main-stream-media and both are hell bent on having an equal stranglehold on the general public's ONLY other means of news, truth and direct communications. ###As all of us know, the Akurians have been questioning for decades "how" the 'government' KNOWS which 'flu' is going to strike TWO YEARS down the line – one year to set the disease and distribute it and another year to let the contracts to manufacture and distribute the 'vaccines' ??? There is only ONE viable answer: GOVERNMENT IS DELIBERATELY CREATING AND MANIPULATING THESE EPIDEMICS! Period. Now all of us KNOW that neither OBastard, Clinton & Kommrades can have anybody – especially the likes of us – asking such questions to the masses of intended victims!

GREAT SET OF QUESTIONS! I hope the answers are adequate, and if not, hit me again!

HEADS UP! In spite of all the media hoopla about Hurricane Irene, as of this AM 27 August 2011, none as in ZERO of the underground weather stations are reporting winds in excess of THIRTY THREE (33) MPH! What's wrong with that picture? We understand the media's OWG manipulators need – and are getting – all the publicity they can get. The hype and hoopla serve no other purpose. YES! You may quote. The Akurians blasted Irene's ass, and we delivered, the media damned lies notwithstanding ...

THANKS!

The Chief.
