Akurians, on my command:

SET YOUR MIND, CLEAN YOUR SOUL AND REPEAT AFTER ME:

"Most High Lord God of All Creation, ALIHA ASUR HIGH: This is my True and Righteous Testimony to you as Ordered by You and Commissioned upon me in accordance with Your Holy Anointing and established Chain of Command:

"Consciousness of Consciousness, this is the Great Vision:

"Lucifer and all your minions, Anunnaki, Kak Jews, Knights of Columbus, Masonic and Temple Israelites, bureaucrats, officers, reporters, associates, supporters, minions, fellows and all families thereof, knowing and ignorant: you are hereby stripped of all powers and all cognizance that you accomplish nothing real or imagined, save and except hastening of your own Death Upon Your Own Head in the Heavens above, in the Earth, and in all the Depths beneath.

"Lucifer and all your servants, Anunnaki, Kak Jews, Knights of Columbus, Masonic and Temple Israelites, bureaucrats, officers, reporters, associates, supporters, minions, fellows and all families thereof: you are now bound in infinite restriction and infinite deprivation that all life energies abandon you that you Die the Death here and now, immediately and without delay.

"Lucifer and all your damnables, Anunnaki, Kak Jews, Knights of Columbus, Masonic and Temple Israelites, bureaucrats, officers, reporters, associates, supporters, minions, fellows and all families thereof: you are bound with all forces and energies of all Violence in All Creation and into the deepest pits of Hell you are cast: there you shall remain until one thousand generations have passed in total freedom from you and all your damnations.

"Consciousness of Consciousness, this is the Great Vision."

Before we continue: ARE THERE ANY QUESTIONS, DIRECT HITS or COMMENTS?

First, are there any newbies that don't know how to FLICK energy? We're going to need the ability before this lesson is finished.

Take a moment to properly charge and FLICK whatever energy you can from one hand to the other. No need to shoot through a wall, back of a chair or table ... open space is fine for our purposes. Note the level of energy you can throw --- and THAT is how much you can hit some Bastard with! No more.

Now to the fun part:

Make a BODY OF LIGHT, clean it of any and all contamination – including programmed hallelujah halfwit we are all saturated with – and send it into the Sun. Do not attach your BODY OF LIGHT to any other Akurian. Expand your BODY OF LIGHT to 800,000 miles in all directions and center it. That all of you are in the same place at the same time is more than sufficient and there isn't any intrusion upon Sword of Fiery Death, The Angel Standing in the Sun.

Now, as I present information, DISCERN what I'm giving and verify it for yourself. We'll take a few minutes with each as we proceed, and you'll note a greater appreciation for this immense furnace that for all intents and purposes is also a machine! Be sure to understand that Cosmic Radiation in the Sun is BOTH mass/matter AND energy.

The Sun is made entirely of plasma: EXTREMELY HOT mass/matter that is so fluid it actually acts, operates and re-acts like pure energy. It is so hot that even space debris, regardless of composition, is melted into its energy basics and heated to the same temperature as itself. The Sun is 99% of all mass/matter in this Solar System and about 1,000,000 times larger than Earth.

We use it constantly in our preparations, invocations and attacks, but have any of you actually taken the time to DISCERN the Sun as an object? The more you KNOW about it – as with everything else – the better you can apply it as a substance or a force.

In this rehearsal, as always in good DISCERNMENT: let the energies tell you!

Let's start at the innermost – the CORE – 400,000 miles deep at the very center: and get a handle on it like we've never had before. The CORE is the hottest place in the entire Solar System; ten times more dense than lead; and at 27,000,000 degrees, emits energy as Cosmic Radiation – the equivalent of 100-Billion tons of exploding TNT every second.

Cosmic Rays? Aren't those 100% fatal to anything and everything else in creation? Yes, they are! And here is one of the GREAT MYSTERIES within our Sun. Surrounding the CORE is a layer of plasma, ten times more dense than rock that actually filters Cosmic Radiation! The CORE and this filtering blanket are about 10,000 times the size of Earth. This filtering action is NOT instantaneous It actually takes about 170,000 years for this filtering process to complete before the mass/matter reaches the surface. And if it didn't we would never have existed as anything more than radio active ash.

Think about that. Light travels at 186,410 miles per second once in free space, but takes 170,000 years to get to where it can fly! The Sun emits about 40,000,000 tons of plasma every second and with a life span of 10+Billion years, THAT is a lot of matter flying out into space in all directions. In fact, one particle of that filtered Cosmic Radiation has about the same impact energy as a baseball at 100 miles an hour! The smaller the ball the higher the impact energy.

Now let's move up toward the surface. One of the great HEAT generators is the layer at about 120,000 miles down – with the upper part moving over the lower part at different speed. The speed varies in places because the mass/matter is boiling in vortexes of filtered Cosmic Radiation.

At about 40,000 miles deep, 80,000 miles higher, it acts like a heat pump pushing somewhat colder mass/matter toward the surface that results in those black areas we call Sun Spots. Sun Spots aren't just decoration, they often foretell Solar Storms or Eruptions. While often very large on the surface they actually extend thousands of miles down into the Sun, somewhat like a plant root.

Science doesn't know that those roots can be a near solid, like a carrot, or as a tangled web like many weeds, or a combination of both. However, were they Akurians and able to DISCERN, they could verify those facts within a few minutes rather than decades-on-end research.

And that brings us to the surface – a boiling plateau well-described as hell itself.

Now, take a minute to review this huge burning monster from the center to the surface and once completed take full cognizance of the entire place. We're going to use some of it.

Now fill your BODY OF LIGHT with all the new-found energy you KNOW is there and available.

With your BODY OF LIGHT still in the Sun: concentrate all that energy you just collected into either hand – now FLICK that energy into the other hand – AND NOTE THE INCREASED IMPACT! The degree of increase is directly proportional to your following the instructions as EXACTLY as possible – some of which you acquired over the months of training.

If you can't detect a greater impact, when you get this Instructional GO THROUGH IT POINT BY POINT! You are going to need the FirePower.

Don't remove that BODY OF LIGHT, dissolve it IN the Sun! Nothing like having some personal ownership of the most-powerful energy source in this end of Creation. Now clean yourself, casting out all contamination.

ARE THERE ANY QUESTIONS?
