This green juice is a total blast! I just started making it a few weeks ago. I was concerned about trying a powder and, mostly, that it would taste like, you know... grass. But, the powder is surprisingly good, mildly sweet and with a hint of mint. I also read online you can easily mix it with green smoothies to enjoy their benefits and alter their taste.

I was concerned about the taste, since all my life I've been a picky eater and preferred good taste over healthy dishes. What if it tastes like dirt or roots? But I was pleasantly surprised to discover a minty flavor that I truly enjoy. And the effects? I do feel energized and toned!
